Trial in this case is scheduled to begin on November 13, 2023, in Courtroom 16A in the Seattle Courthouse. Knowing how to use the courtroom equipment is an expectation of jurors and the responsibility of the attorneys. The parties are encouraged to participate in an in-person

1 training and technology-check session to familiarize themselves with the courtroom technology
2 before trial. Courtroom technology training occurs at the Seattle Courthouse on the first and third

4 The parties must observe the following amended protocol for handling trial exhibits: The 5 parties must deliver one copy of their respective trial exhibits to Grant Cogswell, Courtroom
6 Deputy, five (5) days before the trial date. Each exhibit must be clearly marked on the face of the 7 exhibit. Each set of exhibits must be submitted in a three-ring binder with appropriately
8 numbered tabs. The Court alters the LCR 16.1 procedure for numbering exhibits as follows:
9 Plaintiff's exhibits should be numbered consecutively beginning with 1; Defendant's exhibits
10 should include the prefix "A" and should be numbered consecutively beginning with A-1.
11 Duplicate documents should not be listed twice. Once a party has identified an exhibit in the 12 pretrial order, any party may use it. In addition, no later than seven (7) days before the trial date,
13 the parties should send an electronic copy of all exhibits in .PDF format with Optical Character
14 Recognition ("OCR") searchable text to Mr. Cogswell at grant\_cogswell@wawd.uscourts.gov.
15 The parties should notify the court of any physical objects or files that cannot be transmitted 16 electronically. Exhibits must be marked as described above, and the following protocols also 17 apply: (1) Electronic exhibits must be transmitted individually (i.e., one exhibit per file), but 18 exhibits may have multiple pages; (2) Exhibit file names should include the exhibit number and 19 otherwise match the descriptions listed on the joint exhibit list as closely as possible except that 20 file names should not exceed 80 characters, e.g., Ex. 1 – Accident Scene Photo; Ex. A-1 – Email 21 dated 4-03-23.

22 Finally, the Court anticipates reading a modified version of Ninth Circuit Model 23 Instruction 1.5 – Claims and Defenses – during jury selection. To the extent the parties do not 24

1 already plan to do so, the Court requests that they submit a modified version of Ninth Circuit
2 Model Instruction 1.5 with their proposed jury instructions on November 6, 2023.

3 The Clerk is directed to forward a copy of this Order to all counsel of record.

4 Dated this 24th day of August 2023.
